

Elections by Shareholders to the Red Brick Building Board of Directors,
January 2018
Information for Shareholders

Please find details below of members who are subject to election to the Red Brick Building Board for 2017 – 2018. In any given year three Board members are required to stand down and offer themselves for re-election. This year we have received one resignation so only two members are required to stand down for re-election.

1. Current members of the Board required to stand down by rotation and submit themselves for re-election. Election in all instances is by a simple majority show of hands.

Gareth Mills

Gareth Mills is a Trustee of The Glastonbury Trust, who have supported the project since its inception.

Rory Weightman

Rory has been involved in the Red Brick Building project from the very beginning. He was spokesperson for the original group that occupied the building in 2006 which secured the building for the community. He has been an active member of the board ever since.

Rory has a background in theatre and education. For 20 years he was director of the Hub Theatre School, Cornwall, which pioneered the BTEC ND and HND in Performing Arts. He has also worked in secondary and adult education, as well as 5 years as a labourer in the construction industry in France. Other experience includes smallholding, running a successful small business, performance and visual art projects.

He has lived in Glastonbury since 2002 and has three grandchildren and two sons who also live and work in the area.

Rory has experience and passion for the project and is committed to its success.

New Board members

We are in the process of recruiting new Board members and have 4 people interested in joining the Board. More information will be given and there will be a chance to meet those interested at the AGM.
